FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Oshawa Public Libraries – We'll See You Soon!

Oshawa Public Libraries, July 5, 2021

We are excited to welcome our customers back into the Library for in-person visits at our McLaughlin, Delpark, and Northview Branches beginning Monday, July 5. The Jess Hann Branch will re-open Tuesday, July 6.

Customers will be able to browse the Library's in-house collections and use public computer and printing services. Library spaces will also be open for studying and reading following physical distancing recommendations from Durham Region Health Department. As a courtesy to others wishing to use the Library, we ask that visits are kept to one hour or less. To reduce the handling of Library materials, we recommend asking staff for assistance.

The Library will be open to the public:

McLaughlin, Delpark, and Northview Branches

Monday – Thursday, 10 am – 6 pm

Friday – Saturday, 10 am – 5 pm

Jess Hann Branch

Tuesday – Thursday, 10 am – 6 pm

Friday – Saturday, 10 am – 5 pm

Physical distancing, proper hand hygiene, and wearing a non-medical face mask or face covering are required while in the Library. For our shared health and safety, the Library has increased cleaning of high touch items and surfaces. Anyone experiencing COVID-19 symptoms must postpone their Library visit and call Telehealth or their health care provider for assessment.

For those not ready to visit the Library in person just yet, Library take-out and print-on-demand services will remain available at all locations.

Library items may be returned to the Library's external book chutes.
